

Guy,

You were never someone who spoke simply for the sake of speaking. Whenever you took the floor, everyone knew that what followed would be well prepared, carefully thought through, and delivered with conviction.

Your heart has always been devoted to culture, but equally to social cohesion. Time and again, you reminded us that a municipality is far more than budgets, regulations or construction projects. A community lives above all through the people who call it home – and it was precisely those people who were always at the heart of your commitment.

You always had an open ear for the residents. You listened, took your time, and treated their concerns with genuine seriousness.

You often enriched your speeches with a quotation from German literature. We will all miss that a little. It reminded us that politics is not only about facts and legal provisions, but also about culture, education and thoughtful reflection.

Goethe once wrote: “Only what comes from the heart can touch the hearts of others.”

I believe these words describe you very well. Your commitment was always sincere, authentic and driven by genuine conviction. You devoted yourself to our municipality because you truly cared about it and about the people who live here.

On behalf of our group, we would like to express our heartfelt thanks. Thank you for your dedication, your reliability, your many valuable ideas, and for the pleasure of working with you throughout all these years.

We wish you, above all, good health, plenty of time to enjoy the things you love, and many happy moments with your family, which has recently grown a little larger.
